Contents

Features

p. 8

A Place Beyond Words

Using the Creole Corridor to Redefine the Terms of Early American History

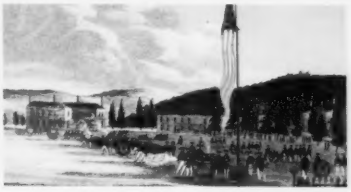
Jay Gitlin

p. 18

Déterminé l'Effacement

The French Creole Cultural Zone in the American Heartland

Robert J. Moore, Jr.



p. 30

From Missouri to West Point

Native Sons of Upper Louisiana

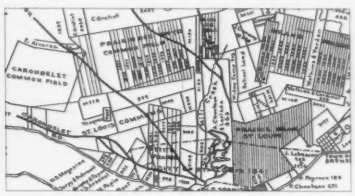
James Baker

p. 42

"Contrary to Good Order"

Political Culture in the Illinois Country Under the French Regime

Robert Michael Morrissey



p. 52

Sui Generis

Landscape, Community, and Mentalité in the Illinois Country

Carl J. Ekberg

p. 64

The Ghost Horse Site

Pierre Laclede's First Residence in the Illinois Country?

Robert Mazrim

Departments

p. 2 From the Editor
p. 2 Laughing Matter
p. 4 Treasures from the Collections
p. 76 As We See It
p. 86 Books
p. 88 Back Story

FRONT COVER: Silhouette of Auguste Chouteau. Ink on paper pasted onto a lithograph by William Henry Brown (attrib), ca. 1825–1840. Missouri History Museum.

BACK COVER: Miniature portrait of Marie Elise Provenchère. Watercolor on paper by François Guyol de Guiran, ca. 1815. Missouri History Museum.